

College Life - Mike's Monday

- 8:45
Wake up, get in the shower
- 9:02
Get dressed. Watch Mike and Mike in the Morning on ESPN2. Check Facebook, email, blogs, and anything else online I feel like doing.
- 9:54
Head to the bus stop to catch the 9:58 to campus.
- 10:14
Read the paper until my 10:30 class starts.
- 10:30
Physics class starts. I take notes, answer questions, and wish I was anywhere else in the world.
- 11:30
Analytical Chem starts. Again, I take notes and do my best to pay attention.
- 12:22
Chem lets out. I go off campus to eat lunch at a fast food restaurant.
- 1:45
I head to Willard to use a computer lab until my next class.
- 2:30
Physics lab starts. It's actually mildly interesting this week, so it didn't quite feel like a 2 hour trip to the dentist.
- 4:20
Catch the bus home.
- 4:45
Videogames with the roommates!
- 6:20
Make a sandwich for dinner.
- 6:35
Remember that I have class at 6:45, frantically drive back to campus.
- 6:45
Educating the Exceptional Learner. Not a bad class, just a lot to take in 2 hours at a time.
- 9:00
Get home, do some homework. Prelabs for Tuesday, and read some for Wednesday.

10:30

More videogames with the roommates.

11:45

Bed!
